Having a picnic is one of the great pleased activities in summer. There are some things you should think about.

Packing (打包) your foods

Before you set off, check if your food box is shut closely. If it's a hot summer's day, then a cool box will be useful for keeping your picnic foods.

Don't forget to pack cups or bottles for drinks.

Food safety

You should keep things like meat pies, fish and dairy dishes in cold boxes. You'd better keep your foods on ice for as long as possible before you eat them. Finally, carry some hand sanitizers (洗手液). Make sure that everyone's hands are clean before they touch the foods.

Delicious snacks

After you have prepared the main dishes, it's time to pack some snacks. Chips, chocolate candies and cookies are considered great picnic snacks. They are very delicious, of course, but be careful not to eat too many of them.

31. What should you do first before going out for a picnic from the article?

- A. Eat sandwiches.
- B. Carry some hand sanitizers.

One day, I picked up my daughter Lingling from school and went to the supermarket for a few things. I was hoping to be in and out quickly.

I found a short line with just one person in front of me. It was an old woman, and she was paying for her things with only coins. After a long day at work, I thought the woman was very terrible.

But then I watched a young salesman. He helped her count her coins, ever so kindly taking them from her shaking hands. I listened to him repeatedly say to her: “ Yes, ma’am (女士). ” When she asked if she had enough money to buy a bag, he told her she did. Then he walked over two lines and got one for her. This salesman wasn’t angry at all. He was patient and kind.

As I was watching him, I saw Lingling was too. I realised my daughter was learning an important lesson from a stranger.

When the woman was finished, the salesman began ringing up my things and thanked me for my patience (耐心). I thanked him too. I found the manager and told him about the salesman’s kindness and patience.

Then we left the supermarket with a full basket, but also with a heart full of thankfulness for such an important lesson.
