M: Good morning, Mrs. Thompson.

W: Oh, Mr. Minisuka. Please come in and sit down. I want to talk to you about something that's come up.

M: What's up? Anyway, I'll be glad to help you with anything I can.

W: Some advice, Mr. Minisuka. [12]I've been offered a new job.

M: A new job?

W: As a matter of fact, it isn't the bank in New York.

M: Is the offer from another bank?

W: [13]It's from the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development in Washington.

M: [13]You mean the World Bank?

W: [13]That's right. And it's really very unexpected, I must say.

Q12. What does the woman want to discuss with the man?

Q13. Who offered the woman the new job?

M: You've established a reputation in international bank circles. May I ask what kind of position they've offered you?

W: A rather important one, as a matter of fact, [14]Deputy Director of the International Finance Corporation. M: [14]Isn't that the part of the bank that makes loan to private companies in the developing countries? W: [14]Yes, it is. It's a job that certainly offers a chance for public service. M: [15]It seems to me that it's a real honor for you.

W: Yes, it is. But I've been with this bank for so many years, ever since I graduated from college in fact.

M: [15]But it's an honor for the bank, too, for the training and experience it's given you.

W: Yes, I suppose I could think of it that way.

M: [12]Then you've decided to accept the offer?

W: [12]Probably, yes, almost certainly. I'd like to think I can do some work that will contribute to international cooperation and understanding.

Q14. What will be the woman's main responsibility as a Deputy Director?

Q15. What does the man think of the job offer?

M: I'm phoning up about this job you advertise in this paper. This...er...young sales manager? W: Oh, yes.

- M: I'd like to apply for it. Would you send me an application form?
- W: [12] No. You simply send in a written application, a letter.
- M: Can you tell me a bit more about the job?
- W: [13] Well, we are really looking for someone who isn't too concerned about working fairly long hours. M: What do you mean by "long hours"?
- W: This is a job which does, as the advertisement says, have travel possibilities, and very often, one would be away at weekends, for instance.
- M: Oh, I thought you meant working in the evenings and working overtime.
- W: Well, it could also mean working in the evenings. But for a managerial post, I'm afraid we don't pay overtime. Mmm...that's for other grades.

Q12. What does the woman say an applicant should do first to apply for the job? Q13. What kind of a person is the company looking for?

M: Hi, Susan! You're looking very smart today.

- W: I always look smart, James. Actually I'm on my way to a job interview.
- M: What job? Oh, you mean for the summer holidays?
- W: Yeah, there is only two weeks to go. [8] I've got a second interview with that big foreign accountancy firm in the city center. You know the one.

M: That's fantastic!

- W: [9] The work is just helping out with the data input, you know, but the pay isn't too bad. It might suit you too. I know they have released two temporary positions available. And I don't think they have anyone else yet.
- M: Um, if they take you on, tell them you know a friend who'd be really good too. [10] I really need the money and the experience will look good on my resume. Maybe we'll be working together, the dream team.
- W: OK, we'll do. If the boss likes me, I'll mention it. It will be good to have someone around who I know. I'll phone you afterwards. But perhaps you should put in an application anyway.
- Q8. Where will Susan probably get a job?
- Q9. What will Susan's future job involve?
- Q10. Why does James want the job in that company?

W: OK, we'll do. If the boss likes me, I'll mention it. It will be good to have someone around who I know. I'll phone you afterwards. But perhaps you should put in an application anyway. M: Thanks, Susan. That's great! Listen, do you want a lift to the city? I have my dad's car today and nothing else to do this morning.

W: Sure. Thanks, James.

M: Let's go then. The car is over there.

W: By the way, how is your knowledge of accountancy? The interviewer may ask you about it. M: No problem. I think I can survive. [11] I might just have to review a few accountancy terms. Maybe you can give me a practicing interview first.

W: Of course. Let's go then. Don't want to be late!

Q11. What does James say he will have to do to prepare for the interview?
